pointing a receiver for the National Sanitary Company, and also of the proposition to wind up the allairs of the company. This brings up the all-important garbage question and the necessity for decising ways and means for the proper removal and disposition of the city a refuse. Freeldent lioss said yesterday evening that the Fidelity Guaranty Company of Baitimore, as sponsor for the sanitary company, had been for some time discharging the obligations of the contract with the District, but time had not been given in which to assertian the intentions of the guaranty company.

"Is not that company bound to see that the contract is fulfilled?" he was asked.

"Yes, but suppose it refuses to carry out the contract. We could only proceed against it in a suit for damages. There is no way that I can now see of compelling the company to keep the streets clean unless, as the indorser of the Sanitary Company, it chooses for the sake of its reputation to do it, and in the event of its relusal and independently of the suit for damages we shall have to make provision for a contract with somebody else." rision for a contract with somebody eise. THE "FAMOUS"

Predicament.

Much as we dislike to impose our fromties on the public we cannot refrain from telling you that such an account of cash as we are obliged to raise before the 15th of November is not easily attainable, but WEVE GOT TO. That's where the rub comes in —We've never been daunted in any undertaking, however arduous, and have always surmounted every obstacle that has confronted us—We've struck a big shag now, but are going to climb ever it, for WEVE GOT TO.
